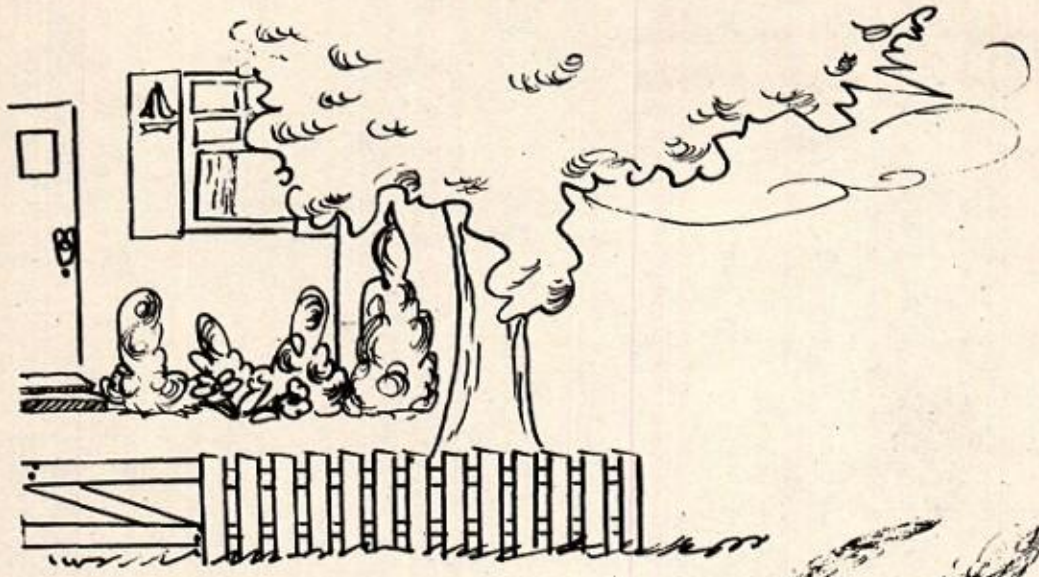
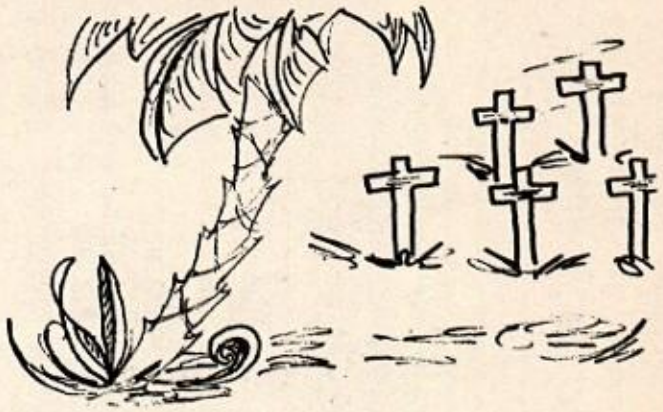
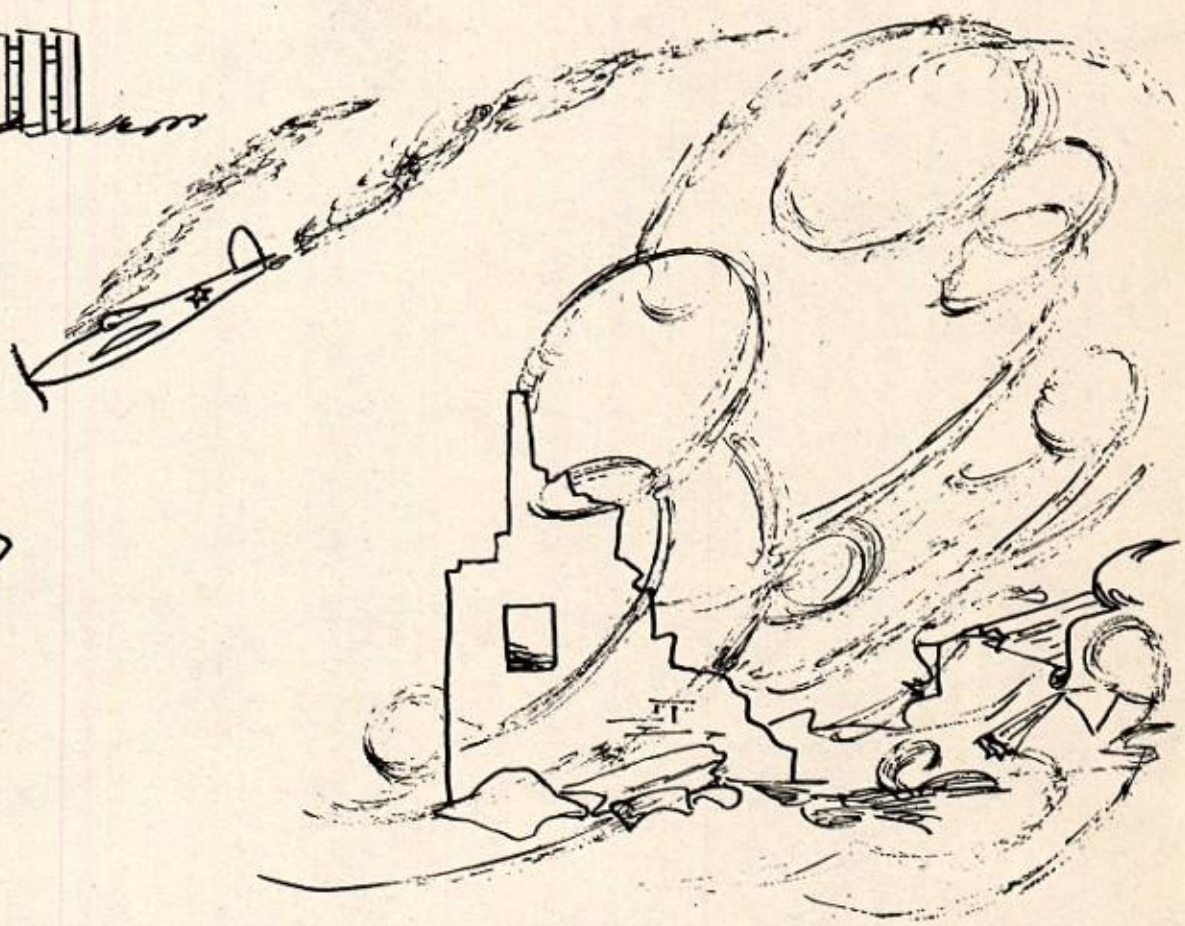
THE ECHO







DEDICATION

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class, of 1951, of Sullivan High School, do hereby dedicate this, our annual, "The Echo", to the alumni members of Sullivan High School who are serving in the armed forces. Etc. We wish to highly honor them along with the millions of other servicemen of The United States for the splendid job that they have done and are continuing to do. Let's get behind these men and give them our full co-operation by sacrificing our luxuries for theirs and by buying war bonds.

CLASS HISTORY

On one bright and sunny day on September 7, 1939, there began a new role in history for the Class of 1951. Four of the original who started to this school are: Ardith Ringler, JoAnn Heifner, Howard Clawson and Don McFadden.

In our first and second year of school we were guided by Miss Cashell. But in the third year her name was changed to Mrs. Draper. Here's where Don McFadden moved to Louisville, Ohio. In the fourth grade, our teacher was Mrs. Hawks. Nothing much happened in the fourth grade, but in the fifth grade, we were pushed along by Mrs. Shaner. In the sixth grade, we were joined by the "brain" of the class, Herbert Bigelow and our "ex-brain," Don McFadden. Mrs. Garling was our teacher.

By the seventh grade, we were started on the last half of our slow journey to nowhere. Here we were helped along by several new teachers. Mr. Workman was our class advisor. We finally made it through the seventh grade without much damage done, gaining Mary Archer. In the eighth grade, we were joined by the fourth brainstorm of the class, Harold Hawley.

Then, we took our most important step of all. Yes, it came true; we entered high school, believe it or not. Here we were joined by Art Walter and Herbert Bigelow moved to Polk. In the tenth grade, we were joined by Jim Dague and Herbert Bigelow came back from Polk. Rob Dobbins, the biggest member with the (?) brains, moved in from Brownhelm. In the next to the last strenuous year, everything was quiet on the home front. But the last and the most painful year, we were all surprised we were here. Howard Clawson joined us from Wellington. Well, here we are, all bright and young and rarin' to go. Now that we are here for the last time, we shall make the teachers happy and I am not sorry to say we are glad to leave.

During our school years, we hope that we haved lived up to our motto, "Build for Character; Not for Fame."

Don McFadden

CLASS POEM

At last this is May, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-One;
Our school days are over, our life's just begun.
Twelve long years have passed for us ten;
Time has made us ladies and men.

We give you our class one by one,
So you can see what we've seen and done,
It's sad to be leaving, yet it's fun to go,
So here's the Seniors for you to know.

First comes Herbert Bigelow, the class brain,
Who knows enough to get out of the rain;
He got A grades; these were tops,
And as for studying, he never stops.

Now take Don McFadden, who isn't quite so bright,
But as for sports, he knows what's right;
He knows all the rules of the games,
But most of all he knows the dames.

Here's Mary Archer, quite a girl;
She has a nice smile and her hair has curl;
In classes she sometimes didn't understand what was said
Because she was always dreaming of Ted.

Harold Hawley, who is usually known as Leroy,
Is of course, any woman's joy;
It's really a good thing we've got him in our class,
Or lots of us wouldn't ever have passed.

Now take Art Walter, he's in our class too;
We don't know how, but he somehow got through,
He joined us from Huntington when we were in grade nine
And has been with us the rest of the time.

Ardith Ringler is the quiet one,
But she's always having a lot of fun.
She's taken up cheerleading as her fame,
And who knows, she might end up at Notre Dame.

Jim Dague is one of us ten.
He likes the women and he likes the men;
He likes sports, eating, and sleeping.
I guess he likes everything but bookkeeping.

Now here's Howard Clawson, who's joy is a pipe.
His ambition is to learn to type.
He gets around to various places,
And is always running into familiar faces.

Here's Royal Dobbins, the class joy.
He really isn't too bad of a boy.
He's out for fun, has lots of life;
He plans on settling down with a nice sensible wife.

Now here comes me, last in line,
And I get the blame for this stupid rhyme,
I've had my fun along with the rest
And really had a time passing a test.

We say good-bye from the bottom of our heart;
In some ways we hate to part;
We've had our fun and now we're through
So here's a so-long to all of you.

We leave you now to choose the right
Whatever it may be,
So here's a request to everyone
To remember the Seniors of '51.

JoAnn Heifner

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Sullivan High School, on this 18th day of the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-one, make our last will and testament, and do hereby make all other wills and testaments void.

To the teachers, we leave a one-way ticket to Blubberland, and since we won't be there, we hope that you enjoy yourselves.

To the Junior Class, we will our five dollar cider barrel (that leaks and SMELLS) and the right to use any of us for side show freaks at their Carnival next year.

To the Sophomore Class, we leave an abundant supply of catsup and mustard to smear around the Home Ec. room after the ball games.

To the Freshman Class, we will all the little rooms we always got pushed into, but have fun kids, we did.

To all the under grades, we leave our marked-up books, and our good behavior.

I, Mary Archer, will my size 24 skirts to Doreen Troup.

I, Herbert Bigelow, will to Wayne Koons and Dick Reynolds my ability to be the quietest boy in school.

I, Howard Clawson, will my ability to eat suckers in Mrs. Robertson's classes to Edith Rollin.

I, James Dague, will my sloppy long shots to Jerry Szabo.

I, Royal Dobbins, will to Bob Foster my ability to pass Agriculture tests.

I, Harold Hawley, will my ability to get along with basketball referees to John Richards.

I, JoAnn Heifner, will my driving ability and a good insurance policy to Betty Kelly.

I, Don McFadden, will to Mr. Rosen someone else to keep him company in detention hall.

I, Ardith Ringler, will my cheerleading tights and four bells to the gal that the student body chooses to take my place next year.

I, Arthur Walter, will my ability to sleep in class to Jerry Szabo.

Seal Duly Affixed and Signed this Twelfth day of February in the Year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-One.

CLASS PROPHECY

May 24, 1951, the Senior Class of Sullivan High received their diplomas and began planning for the future.

JoAnn Heifner, the class Secretary, had decided to become a stenographer for some rich businessman.

Harold Hawley, the President of our class, has decided to go to law school and become President of the United States.

Herbert Bigelow, class Vice-President, has decided to go to medical school and become a pharmacist.

Jim Dague wants to settle down and get married.

Howard Clawson likes to tinker with motors, so he wants to become a U. S. Navy mechanic.

Don McFadden has also decided to settle down and get married.

Ardith Ringler wants to go to Texas and start a Dude Ranch.

Arthur Walter wants to start a long distance truck line and drive his own truck.

Mary Archer wants to become a nurse.

Royal Dobbins, class Treasurer, has decided he likes handling money, so he wants to become a banker.

It is now 1961 and we see Art Walter and his wife sitting in Don McFadden's Night Club, Pleasure Island, watching the floor show.

Harold Hawley, now a Captain in the U. S. Air Force is America's most highly decorated pilot in the war with Russia.

Herb Bigelow is now the owner and manager of the Sullivan Roller Rink.

Howard Clawson is now Service Manager at the Sullivan Ford Garage owned by his father.

Jim Dague is still a buck private in the Infantry. He is stationed in Antarctic with Admiral Byrd. He expects a promotion any year now.

We now see a large billboard with a notice on it saying, JoAnn Heifner, famous entomologist is being featured tonight at the W. C. T. U., speaking on "The Life of a Grasshopper." Don't miss it!

Mary Archer and Ardith Ringler are now co-owners of the Comets, The World's Fanciest Ice Skating Team. They are planning to learn to skate themselves sometime in the near future.

Royal has won nation wide recognition as Bombardier on Captain Hawley's P. 88 Shooting Star.

BASKETBALL

In the Ashland County League they have assumed second place with seven wins and three loses. The overall season record ended with the Bobcats over the five hundred percentage mark with eleven wins and eight loses.

In the coming tournament, Sullivan has to play Perrysville in the first round. If a possible win comes to the Bobcat five, the only teams that stand in their way are Savannah and Hayesville to win top honors in the tournament.

The Bobcats are doing very well in their fight for the tournament.

The Reserve Team has done well as they ended with sixteen wins and only three loses. The players are: Gene Hawley, Jerry Szabo, Jim Patton, Jim Richards, Arlen Handley, Harold Hawley, Herb Bigelow, Dean Keener, Ken Pauli, Weldon Gordon, Wayne Koons and Carl Walter.
